

The 'Roman bridge' at Blackpill

NGR SS 61896 90714

The so-called 'Roman Bridge' is believed to have been built in 1305 to enable people to cross the Pill at Blackpill.

Photo taken in 1975.

Photo taken in October 2011.

Photo taken in 2018 after CVCP had restored the bridge with funding from the Landfill Communities Fund received through ENTRUST.